

Mechanism

Both of the sleeper mechanisms are professional units and are constructed of heavy-gauge tubular steel and features a tilt TV-Headrest.

Style #2000-#2600 style numbers and our chair sleeper mechanisms have 72" long unit. All other styles have 75" long units.

FEATURES and BENEFITS

- All tubular design...Increased strength, durability, and safety.
- Riveted crosswire support system...Enhanced support in the seating and sleeping position.
- Contoured seat section...Wider seating area with improved comfort next to the arms.
- Double-locking TV headrest...Secure support, unit will not close with TV headrest in the locked position.
- Anti-tilt link...Ensures the mechanism will remain in contact with the floor.
- Deep sew line...Improved seating comfort, eliminates deck crown.
- One-piece all tubular legs...Greater support in critical weight areas.
- One-piece contoured head tube and mattress retainers...Secure mattress retention throughout operating cycle.
- Weight balanced linkage design...Easiest operating and most durable linkage available.
- Seat Crosswires...For enhanced comfort.